LOCAL.

STURGEON school will open on August 15th.

I. R. WILSON is expected to arrive on to-night's train.

CRICKET match on Saturday next, at Edmonton, between Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan.

MR. MIQUELON, late immigration agent at Calgary, is going into business at Wetaskawin station.

A PILGRIMAGE started to-day from St. Albert to Lake St. Anne under the direction of Bishop Grandin.

THE Methodist Sunday school will hold a basket picnic at Poplar lake, on Tuesday, August 2nd.

THE Northwest Gazette of July 15th contains an authorization to Clover Bar school district to borrow $500.

TRAP shooting match on Friday next, at Edmonton, between Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan gun clubs.

FOOT race on Saturday next between Keil of Edmonton and Constable Lambe of Fort Saskatchewan, 100 yards, $50 a side.

THE funeral of the late Dennis Coghlan drowned in the Saskatchewan, July 7th, at Moore & Macdowall's timber limit, took place on Sunday forenoon to St. Albert cemetery.

A COMPANY has been formed by those who located petroleum claims on section 25, township 56, range 26, with E. F. Carey, president. The land has been purchased from the C. P. R. and boring machinery sent for.

A RAFT of lumber for Moore & Macdowall arrived on Friday.

BEFORE Superintendent Griesbach and Inspector Piercy, J. P's., on Friday morning, Miles Norris, charged with furious riding and violent language on the street, was fined $10 and costs.

A SEVERE hail storm occurred at Leduc station, 20 miles south of Edmonton, on Thursday. The storm was about five miles wide and the fall of hail very heavy; but as the wind was not high no great damage was done.

REV. D. G. McQUEEN returned from attending the Presbyterian assembly in Montreal on Thursday's train. Mrs. McQueen remains in Ontario on a visit. The crops are good in Ontario this year, particularly fall wheat, which is almost ready to cut.

CLOVER BAR schoolhouse is now completed. The building is 18x24, 12 foot walls, frame, rustic siding outside and ceiled inside. The contractor, K. A. McLeod, left Edmonton on Monday morning, with his gang of men, to start the building and returned on Friday at noon, having left it complete.

FREE PRESS: "Mrs. Rowlinson, a wealthy lady of England, was in the city yesterday, on her return home. She has been inspecting the country, with a view to investment, and has purchased considerable land in the Edmonton district, on which her children will settle. She was accompanied by Miss Hodgison."

THE following Edmonton people left on Friday's train to take in the Winnipeg exhibition: Mayor McCauley, councillor Cameron, A. Prince, M. L. A. for St. Albert, accompanied by Mrs. Prince, John Brown, R. Secord, T. Weekes, K. Macdonald, H. Hetu, Mrs. E. Lambert, Mrs. Williams accompanied by Dr. Tofield's eldest child.

THE Calgary Herald has the following personal item: "Mr. Thomas Anderson, Dominion lands agent at Edmonton, was struck with a stone a few days ago and disabled for duty. Mr. Almon, of the Calgary Dominion land office, went up yesterday morning to take charge of the office temporarily." It would be interesting to know where the Herald got its information.

C. O. SWANSON, of Waterville, Quebec, who visited Edmonton last fall with a view to induce Swedish emigration from the New England States, left Calgary on Thursday's train for Edmonton with a colonist car containing about twenty Swedish families, who are coming to settle in the Edmonton district. The car was left at Peace Hills to give the party an opportunity to look over that country, and will come to Edmonton on Monday's train.

COMPLAINT is made that the Edmonton land office is without a sign and that strangers are put to unnecessary difficulty in finding it in consequence. The sign was taken down by the agent on the day of the attempted removal and has not been replaced. If the financial resources of the interior department are not equal to the purchase of a sign it would pay the citizens who are continually being stopped on the street by strangers asking the way to the land office, to provide a suitable sign.

WM. RITCHIE arrived from Grafton, Dakota, on Monday with a party of land prospectors. The names are; H. Brown, J. Flood, J. McEwen, W. Dales, C. Wince, W. Dowling, R. McRae, Geo. Dickson, J. Dowling, Peter Herbinson, J. L. Anderson, Hans Johnson, Henry Smally. They drove out to townships 54 and 55, ranges 21 and 22, south and east of Fort Saskatchewan. Four of the party took homesteads, and the remainder purchased C. P. R. lands. They left for home on Friday's train. Mr. Ritchie will conduct a Dakota party to the Winnipeg exhibition and will be back in Edmonton with another party early in August.

THE contract for laying the town sidewalks was awarded to Chas. Sandison on Saturday last. The price is  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a cent per square foot for sidewalk and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  per square foot for crossings, all material to be supplied. Ten tenders were in.

THE town council held a meeting on Saturday afternoon at which Councillor Carey presided, at which it was agreed to ask the lieutenant governor to proclaim townships 52 and 53 ranges 24 and 25, except sections 27 to 34 inclusive of the latter township, a health district under the Northwest ordinance. A health by-law for the town of Edmonton was passed and Dr. Braithwaite appointed medical officer, at $15 a month. It was decided to purchase a canvas tent for the sum of $52, for use in case of necessity. The provisions of the health by-law are very stringent.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TENDERS for the erection of a School House for the Crenzot Catholic Public School District, No. 34, will be received till noon, on Wednesday, August 10th, 1892, at the secretary's office, Fort Saskatchewan. L. O. LAMOUKEUX, Secretary.

THE RIGHT OF OPINION.

The suspension of a number of government officials at Edmonton, within the past week, has given rise to considerable local comment. In two cases notice merely of suspension was given without any reason being assigned, and in a third a reason was given and a partial enquiry made. This was the case of the postmaster, A. D. Osborne, and the reason given by assistant inspector of postoffices, A. W. Cairns, who came to enquire into the matter, was that on a certain occasion Mr. Osborne had been seen carrying a gun on the streets of Edmonton and defying the government. The alleged occasion was during the attempted removal of the land office. Owing to all the suspensions occurring about the same time, the natural inference is that they were made for like cause, that is that the government has seen fit to suspend, without enquiry, a number of its servants, on the mere accusation that they sympathized with the action of their fellow citizens in defending their rights. Whether these gentlemen did or did not sympathize with a movement that has received the unanimous approval and sympathy of the people of the Northwest at large, the BULLETIN is not aware, nor is that a matter of absorbing interest to the public. The question in which the public are interested is: Was sympathy with that effort at self defence, a crime in the eyes of our government? If the movement had been made to resist a certain action or order of the government, there would be good grounds for questioning the action of government officials who actively assisted in preventing the carrying out of that order; but in this case we have the full authority of the government for knowing that the action resisted by the people of Edmonton was not in accordance with, but contrary to, the instructions and desires of the government. That is, that the action with which it was a crime for these officials to sympathize, was taken to prevent the will and wish of the government from being contravened by an official whom his responsible chief says, in his place as a member of parliament and on his responsibility as a minister of the crown, misunderstood his instructions and acted contrary to orders. As to the extent to which government officials may be permitted to exercise the right of private opinion the BULLETIN is not prepared to say anything. If it is held that they must have no private opinions, then, and only then, their suspension is warranted. But the government does not hold that view, or does not hold to it at election time, at least, for when election day rolls around every government official is expected to go to the poll and record his vote, and does as a matter of fact, and every member of the government is prepared to swear that he does so in the most perfect freedom to exercise his own private judgment. If, then, he is entitled to exercised the right of franchise, he is entitled to hold a private opinion and even to express it

It would be well for the government before following up these suspensions by dismissal to consider the position in which the action that has already been taken has placed them. An attempt was made to do a foul wrong to a large number of people and to a large section of country; people whose interests the government is supposed to protect country which it is the business of the government to develop. The attempt was made by a government official and in the name of the government. The government saw fit to repudiate the action of its officer and to deny its responsibility for the attempt. The public accepted the repudiation and denial. But when the government holds it to be a crime not only to have opposed the action of that officer, but to have held opinions opposed to his action, while retaining him in the full authority of his position without the faintest attempt at question or enquiry into the act which the government publicly repudiated, it leaves ground for the supposition that the government, or members thereof, were a party to this most unjustifiable attack upon the interests of its subjects, that they only repudiated the action of their officer through fear of the consequences, and that now they are taking a coward's revenge, by striking at their own servants, when they think it can be done without arousing public indignation.

WHEAT.

The following table shows the amount and quality of Northwest grain inspected at Port Arthur during the year ending June 30th, 1892. The small proportion of No. 1 hard is a striking feature, and should be a pointer to the intending settler to go into mixed farming. It also shows that the talk we so often hear about the large proportion of fancy wheat raised in, say, southern Manitoba, or on the Portage plains as compared with Edmonton wheat is only guff:

WHEAT.	CARS.	PER C.	BULHELS.
1 hard.....	424.....	3	275,600

SMALL-POX NEWS.

The Calgary papers arriving on Thursday report the small-pox cases mentioned in Thursday's BULLETIN and no others. All the patients at the quarantine grounds are doing well. The Chinamen are now ready to be turned loose. The Herald says if they come back to town there will be trouble. Mrs. Halliday, who was one of the last to take the disease, could not be removed to the quarantine grounds owing to her having just been confined, but the house has been carefully quarantined. The lady who was taken ill in the Alberta Hotel was a Mrs. Burton, travelling with her husband from the coast. The hotel has been disinfected but not closed. The quarantine grounds have been declared an infected district under Northwest ordinance and the Dominion government has been asked to establish a quarantine at the British Columbia boundary. The feeling is in favor of compulsory vaccination. No vaccine matter was to be had in town, but a quantity was expected on the 18th, which it appears has arrived. Banfill proposes a strict examination of all passengers from the west getting off there, and the isolation of suspected cases. Medicine Hat forbids passengers from the west entering the town, and the police enforce the order. C. P. R. station agents have been instructed by Superintendent Whyte to require all persons purchasing tickets for the east to sign a declaration that they have not been exposed to small-pox contagion, or to produce a medical man's certificate to that effect. This precaution is taken at the wish of the Winnipeg city authorities so that the city need not quarantine trains at the boundary of the province.

LOCAL.

Miss F. MATHESON has been employed as assistant in the postoffice.

Mrs. SHAW and four children arrived from Orillia on Thursday's train to join Mr. Shaw here. They brought a carload of stock.

D. C. ROBERTSON'S log stable has been moved off the street allowance. This is one of the oldest buildings in town, and was formerly occupied as a dwelling.

Rev. E. B. GLASS, of Battle river, who was seriously ill in Edmonton last spring, has gone to Banff for his health. He had a slight stroke of paralysis recently.

The mounted police have completed their work of gathering information regarding stock and crops in the Edmonton district, west of and including range 24. There is the following crop acreage: wheat, 2,822, oats, 3,520, barley, 1,979, rye, 5½, peas, 14½ potatoes, 191½, other roots, 0½; broken land uncultivated, 5. Stock is as follows: horses, 1,449, cattle, 4,613, oxen, 89, swine, 2,000, sheep, 931. The increase from 1891 is: wheat, 793, oats, 367½, barley, 405, potatoes, 57½, horses, 138, cattle, 620, swine, 673. The German settlements of Stony Plain, Rabbit Hill and St. Albert are not included in this count. They are now being taken by a German speaking constable. East of range 24 the enumeration is made separately and the returns have not yet been received. This will add at least a third to the totals given above.

The party of Nebraska delegates, who arrived on Thursday, the 14th, under the conduct of H. H. Smith, Dominion government immigration agent, returned from a visit to Beaver lake on Thursday afternoon, where they had gone to select land with the assistance of A. E. Johnston, land guide. The following entries were made by the party on their return: Thos. Swan, Robert Swan, James Swan, C. Bevington, J. Bevington, J. Calder, W. Camack, W. H. Camack, E. Camack, A. G. Bagley. The entries were chiefly in and about township 55, range 20, near the crossing of the Beaver river by the Victoria trail and on the Beaver lake trail. A number of members of the party who did not enter for land will be back in the fall with friends who desire to locate together. The party left for the south on Friday's train. This is the first Nebraska party for the Northwest, and Mr. Smith is to be congratulated on his success in inducing such desirable settlers to visit Edmonton, as well as on the fact of so many of them having homesteaded.

Word was received on Friday that the body of Daniel Coghlan, who was drowned in the Saskatchewan, at Moore & Macdowall's timber limit, on July 7th, had been found on Monday, near the place where the accident occurred. The body was brought down to Moore & Macdowall's mill and buried there. A. Coghlan, brother of the deceased left on Friday afternoon to bring the body down for permanent burial. The circumstances of the accident, which resulted in Mr. Coghlan's death were as follows: Deceased was employed as cook by Messrs. P. Reilly and W. Alexander, who were rafting logs for Moore & Macdowall, and was standing on the bank helping Reilly to roll the logs down the bank while Alexander was placing them in their proper position, in the water, by using a pike pole. The pole slipped out of Alexander's hand and floated down stream, over a sand bar, above which the raft was being made. Deceased ran down the bank to catch the pike pole, and went out on the bar over which the water was running. Alexander ran also and passed Coghlan, at the same time handing him his pipe to hold while he went after the pole. Shortly after passing Coghlan, Alexander fell into deep water where the current had cut off the sand bar, and had the greatest difficulty in getting out on the bar again, being nearly exhausted before he got out of the deep water and rapid current. On recovering his self he looked around and saw Coghlan struggling in the deep water where he himself had been, but was too exhausted to assist him and only saw him for a moment. It appeared that Coghlan had followed Alexander too closely and fallen over the edge of the treacherous sand bar as he had, or that in his excitement at seeing Alexander in the deep water or in the effort to assist him had fallen in.

The Battleford Herald says that the steamer Northwest is likely to visit Edmonton this season.

The purse advertised as lost recently by Rev. Father Fouquet, was picked up by an Indian and finally returned to the owner without loss. This is proof of the complete honesty of at least one Indian, for the money could not have been traced and the sum was considerable, over $60. As a matter of fact the Indians of this district are scrupulously honest in such matters.
